Reds Plan Saxony Republic as Adherents Spread Revolt Through Germany

PLOT SOVIET FOR SAXONY

cals in Saxony are preparing to proclaim a soviet (Bolshevik) republic, said a Berlin dispatch to the Politiken today.

Quiet prevails in Baden but riots are reported to have taken place in Bavaria yesterday. Communists in the Ruhr district (Rhenish Prussia) refused to surrender their weapons and government WEIMAR, Feb. 25 ((via London, Feb. 26) .- The cabinet today declared Communist (Bolshevik) headquarters 'at Munich in a state of siege. Martial law had previously been troops are marching in to disarm declared at Munich. If was decidend not to send Prussian troops against the Spartacans at Munich because of the anti-Prusgion feeling in Bavaria.

Bavarian delegates who were commg to Weimar were turned back at the Prussian-Bavarian frontier.

PARIS, Feb. 26 .- Polish dispatches "alleged today, that the Czecho Slowaks have broken the armistice on the entire front of the Lemberg region. Their initial attacks were repulsed by the Polish forces, it was said, and fighting continues, GENERA. Feb. 26 .- A throw of the dice determined who should assassinate Premier Kurt Eisner, of Bavaria, said a dispatch from Munich today.

This fateful game took place in a club and among those engaging was Rupprecht, former crown prince of Bavaria Count Arco Valrey lost.

the arrival of government thoops. The Spartacans refused to sur-render their arms and seized the opposition from the Socialists, who ting off communication. ecces Von Holtzendorff, a high of-disorders at Mannheim, Brunswick, forces. Essen and Dusseldorf are abating. Von Holtzendorff's post is lord high steward and privy councillor.

Holtzendorff, who has just been appointed to the "presidential cabinet" n Germany, was one of the sponsors of U-boat frightfulness.

BERLIN, Feb. 26 (via London, Feb. 26).—The communists (Radicals) have

ADVERTISEMENT Cause Headaches and Pains.

reverish Headaches and body pains caused from a cold are soon BROMO QUININE Tablets. There's Minnesota University, addressing the the parade committee so desired. ordo one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. National Education Association, in CENTURE Signature on the box. 20c.

New York Heiress in Suit | Cut These Out and Get Ready For Millions

MRS. LAURENCE LEWIS. Of New York, who inherited $73,000.000 from Mrs. R. E. Bingham, formerly Mrs. H. M. Flagler, and who will probably have to pay approximately $3,225,000 if the State of Kentucky should win its inheritance tax suit against the estate left by Mrs. Bingham. The case will be heard February 27.

decided upon an uprising today, coincident with the funeral of Kurt Eis-DONDON, Feb. 26.—Conflicting reports were received here today reto the Abend Express. An attempt will be made, according to this paper to force sovietism upon Prussia.

There were lessening, but this was solved by a central News telegram saying that there had been series fighting since Sunday due to WARSAW, Feb. 26.—An armistice was concluded between the Poles and Ukrainians, effective 6 a. m., Monday, according to an official telegram received from Lemberg.

WEIMAR, Feb. 26.—Despite strong telephone and telegraph offices cut- raised the cry of "militarism," the bill providing for a "national army of BERLIN, via London, Feb. 26 .- defense" has passed second reading. President Ebert is forming a "presi- Debate upon this measure shows that dential cabinet" and has already so the spirit of militarism is still alive. Socialist opponents of the bill dencial of the Hamburg-American Line, clared it is a measure which means Camp Humphreys and Fort Wash-'the resurrection of militarism for Order now prevails here, and the the suppression of the revolutionary

> "This bill is aimed to check the growing chaos," declared War Minister Gustave Noske, of the people's party. "Our | tend. old army was the best in the world. We

In defending the measure, Noske said further: "It would be criminal carelessness tries have no occasion for mistrust."

CALLS LEAGUE CRITICS

(Continued from First Page.) honor of the discharged soldiers of the District who should be considered for bravery.

"There will be several hundreds of approximately 20,000 persons would soldiers in the parade who will be fully equipped and armed. Every government will defray the expense of the journey to and from Washington of all men who elect to at-COPENHAGEN, Feb. 26 .- Von will never forget what it did in the helmets issued during the war, were given to the men upon discharge. The the parade tomorrow ossessors of the helmets will, undoubtedly, wear them in the parade, leash "the dogs of war" will be the "The fact must not be overlooked central figure on the float the government did not protect the that the men taking part in the pa-East Prussion frontiers from the rade will be discharged soldiers and Bolshevik menace. Foreign coun- not under the control of the War Department. Their equipment was given up at the time of their discharge. failing from her shoulders and will carry a sword and wear a gold helmet with white feathers and white wings, "All soldiers must report promptly In the center of the float will be at 11 o'clock at the east plaza of the a large white globe, with the con-

Major Marks, of the operations' CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Critics of the hranch of the War Department, stated Great Britain, France and Italy will League of Nations are "dead but un- today that the department was willby taking LAXATIVE buried," said President Burton of ing to issue rifles to the soldiers if

We were informed by Colonel costumes. A knight in coat of mail Harper yesterday that it would be

To Sing 'Em Tomorrow

The War Camp Community Service wants everybody to sing tomorrow when Washington welcomes President Wilson and the returning soldiers.

These are the songs which will be sung. Clip them out and have them handy tomorrow so you can "join in" when the War Camp Community Service song leaders start the singing along the line of

WHEN YOU COME BACK.

When you come back, yes when you come back, You'll hear the Yankee cry, "At-a-boy, Jack!" And when you return, remember to bring Some little thing that you get from the king, And drop me a line from Germany, Do, Yankee Doodle, do, When you come back, and you will come back, There's the whole world waiting for you.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES.

(Copyright, M. Witmard & Co.

Pack up your troubles in your old kit back and smile, Keep the home fires burning, While you've a lucifer to light your fag, smile, boys, Though your lads are far away that's the style.

So pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and Turn the dark cloud inside out smile, smile, smile. (Published by Chappell & Co.)

THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL. There's a long, long trail a-winding into the land of Now you've come back, and we're glad you're back,

There's a long, long night of waiting until my dreams We sent you a line to Germany, Till the day when I'll be going down that long, long For you've come back and we're glad you're back.

Tomorrow a Half-Holiday.

District business houses and manu-

the escort of honor for the President are: Lieut, Joseph L. Carill, Capt

Sergt, John Hartnett, Sergt, W. C.

march in the parade. Twenty bands have volunteered to furnish the music

'VICTORY AND PEACE' FLOAT

A FEATURE OF BIG PARADE

A float representing "Victory and Peace" will be one of the features of A winged "Victory" holding in

Mrs. Margaret Hopkins Worrell.

who designed the float, will represent white robe, with a scarlet coat train tinents etched on the surface in gold.

be arranged around the globe.

ed on a gold and white throne.

Characters representing America,

Seated on the steps of the float will be a group of girls in classical

"Peace" will be represented by White doves fastened by white

bbons will flutter above the throne

Miss Mary Agatch, Miss Alice

Smith, Miss Abbie Catherine Kurtz, Miss Mary Rabbet, Miss Katharine

Zane, Miss Gertrude Farrell Lynch, Mrs. Lillian Evelyn Jarrell and Mrs.

Miss Alta Clayton will take the

be a blue velvet gown, the long train

Great Britain will be personified

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Feb. 26.-

The Washington men are Sergeant

place northwest; Musician Archeaus

Hughes, 2817 Thirty-eighth street

northwest; Musician Oscar G. Fogel, 3842 Twenty-second street northwest, and Corporal Louis Benner, 624 Milwaukee street, Congress Heights; Musician Joseph Frober, 207 Florida avenue; Musician Jacob Jacobson, 1821 W street southeast, and Private Harry B. Puffenberger, 1329 Eighth This band was in France for over a year. So excellent has its work been that it is rumored this band will be kept in Washington to play on public occasions.

Nine hundred colored troops, man of them veterans of Pershing's arm; ill march in the soldiers' welcome

IN WELCOME PARADE

lined with stripes of red and white. Miss Jewel Andre, as "Jeanne facturing concerns.

for the event.

There are smiles that make us happy, There are smiles that make us blue, There are smiles that steal away the teardrops, As the sunbeams steal away the dew. There are smiles that have a tender meaning, That the eyes of love alone may see, And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine, Are the smiles that you give to me.

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING.

(Copy. ..., 1918, by Jerome H. Remick & Co.)

While your hearts are yearning, They dream of home. What's the use of worrying? It never was worth There's a silver lining, Through the dark cloud shining, Till the boys come home.

NOW YOU'VE COME BACK

Hear all the people cry, "Welcome home, Jack!" Where the nightingales are singing and the white And did you by chance remember to bring moon beams;

Some little thing that you got from a king? Jack, we do love you true, Here we all are waiting for you.

of the fathers and mothers of sol-found, undoubtedly would drop out of all who wanted might drop out with-sole reason for assigning the moth-

"Arrangements have been made to complaint that the parents have been position obviously is unjust, for the or treatment without delay. The received last night.

ers and fathers to the last position.

"Therefore, it was deemed best to give them the last position, so that better for the men to march without parade, Brig. Gen. R. D. Simms, of the therefore, the assignment of the rifles," said Major Marks. "Colonel District National Guard, announced parents' section to the last parade po-Harper's decision is commendable, today. sition was not made until after careinasmuch as comparatively few of the The colored fighters are enrolled in ful consideration. men participating will be infantry- the 368th Machine Gun Battalion, "As the parents section was being 272d Infantry, 351st Field Artillery, formed it became evident that many and the 368th Field Artillery. These units will not march in full diers are aged and probably too old Colonel Harper today received of-Colonel Harper today received of-ficial notification from the White the different companies being the rade. Some of these parents, it was House that Government employes only soldiers to participate. will be granted a half-holiday to-All men who have been in the serv- the line after marching only a part of ice, whether they have their uniforms the route. The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association at a meeting last night to report at 11 o'clock at the Capitol grounds, north division, section A.

out difficulty. The committee in CHARLES E. VAN LOAN. Among those who will march in EXPLAINS "PARENTS charge requested the last position for the parents for the safety and com fort of the parents, and this was the Harry H. Semmes, Lieut. C. M. Kinsolving, Sergt. John Dupuy Graham, Col. Robert N. Harper, chairman of the reception parade committee, to- have Red Cross ambulances follow ously ill in a hospital it Philadel-Harris, Sergt, G. W. Hardy, Private John J. Fallon and Private Edward day issued a statement to The Times the parents section, so that if any of phia, and has a "fighting chance" for M. Williams, both of Walter Reed explaining why the last position in the aged men and women grow fa-Hospital. All the members of the the parade tomorrow has been as tigued or ill, they can be given rest from Mrs. Van Loan to er mother. M. Williams, both of Walter Reed explaining why the last position in the aged men and women grow fahonorary escort have been decorated signed to the fathers and mothers of Colonel Harper stated today that the men and boys who fought for slighted by being assigned the last Uncle Sam.

"The last position in the parade is committee had only the welfare of not commonly considered a position these people in mind in requesting of honor," said Colonel Harper, "and, the last position."

Our Brave Boys and President Home

IMPORTANT NOTICE

From Over There

This Store Closes at 12:30 P. M. Thursday, in Honor of the Victory Parade.

PARKER-BRIDGET

Places on Sale Today and Tomorrow

150 Plain Blue Serge Suits at $28.75

TOU don't need to be a clothing man to know that Blue Serge Suits are as staple as wheat, and that they can be carried over from one season to the next without depreciation in value.

That is the policy many stores pursue, but not "P-B."

We don't play favorites, as we said many times before, but sell our merchandise as the season demands,

When it is a sale period, we offer our entire stock at sale prices, and give you your free and unrestricted choice.

So in this case, where we have 150 Blue Serge Suits-45 of which are satin-lined throughout-and were formerly offered at up to $40, are now $28.75.

All sizes are here in regulars and

The Avenue at Ninth

PRINCESS WHO WILL NEAR-SLAYER OF

PRINCESS PATRICIA.

An exceptional and hither-to-unpublished portrait of Princess

Patricia of Connaught, who is to be wedded to Commander Alexander Ramsay tomorrow. Great preparations have been made for the ceremony, which will take

Charles E. Van Loan, water, is seri-

WRITER, SERIOUSLY ILL

place in Buckingham Palace.

George G. Else, clerk in the Was Department, who created a panic ir an F street cafeteria a week ago by trying to kill his wife and himseli with a revolver, ended his life today in a ward at Washington Asylun Hospital.

Else used a chain which he had procured in a bathroom to hang himself from a wall gas fixture, and had been dead only about twenty minutes when found shortly after 1 o'clock this morning.

Else, who was thirty-five years old made his first attempt at suicide in a cafeteria at 1010 F street when he fired a bullet from a .32-caliber revolver into his chest after shooting at his wife, Mrs. Mary Else. Mrs. Else fainted as her husbane aimed the pistol at her and fell to the floor, the bullet passing through her hair. Else, evidently believing the woman dead, shot himself in the lung found the wound was not fatal and Elige was removed to the Washington Asylun

When Else's body was, discovered by George H. Johnson, an orderly at the hospital, this note was found pinned to the bathrobe worn by Elise: "Without wife there is no life.

love you to eternity. Pray for me darling, for it is because I can't have you that I suffer death. I am crasy I know, but it is our own fault. Your refusal to return drove me crazy. did not know what I was doing. Thank God you were not hurt. George."

Mrs. Else was in consultation with her attorney, H. B. Molton, in his of fice when told of her husband's death "I don't, I can't believe it," she said Then she bowed her head and sobbed Else had been removed to the asylum hospital to await trial on a charge of assault with intent to kill his wife. Coroner Nevitt has Issued a certificate that Else died by his own

BROTHER OF ASSASSINATED AMIR SEIZES THE THRONE

LONDON, Feb. 26.-Nasrollah Khan. brother of the assassinated Amir of Afghanistan, was reported today to have seized the throne,

Our Brave Boys and President Home from Over There

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This Store Closes at 12:30 P. M., Thursday, in Honor of the Victory Parade.

PARKER-BRIDGET

For the Men of Washington Lion Brand Linen Collars 9c Each or 3 for 25c

THE mere announcement that men's high-grade, sandard ply collars are reduced in price is enough to create a sensation, and a response that would tax the service of any store but P. B.

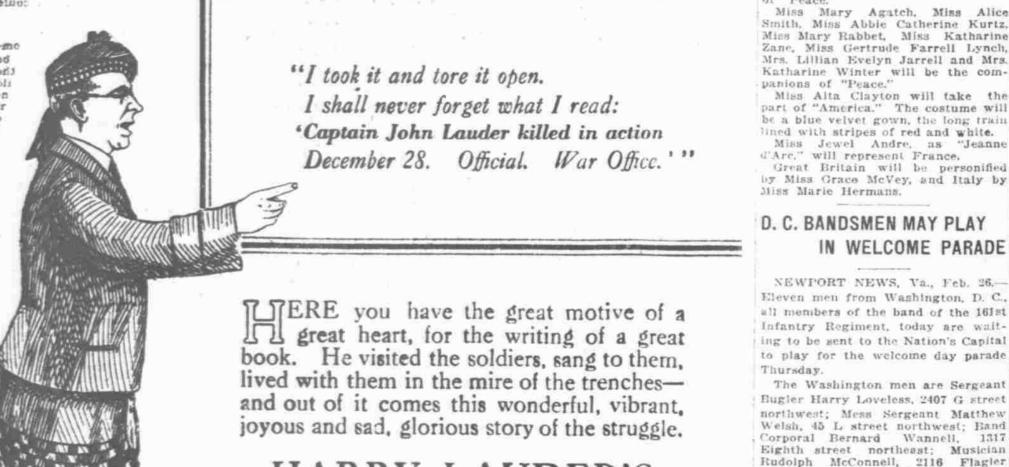

Men have been patiently waiting for the time when they could buy collars at prewar prices.

This sale brings that time to them and gives them the opportunity to buy a supply of excellent, perfectly made, perfectly fitting collars of up-to-date styles at a very unusual price.

There are all sizes in this sale, and in order to give quick and efficient service elaborate plans have been made.

The Avenue at Ninth

HARRY LAUDER'S A MINSTREL IN FRANCE

It is the unique book of the year $2.00 wherever books are sold

HEARST'S INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY CO.,

NEW YORK